

CONTENTS

Europeanism and Universalism as Foundations for Dramatic Optimism: Hymns to Joy, to Youth, to Science (Editorial)	5
Václav Havel — Europe as Task	9

*

Friedrich Schiller — An die Freude/Hymn to Joy	18
Adam Mickiewicz — Oda do młodości/Ode to Youth	20

DIALOGUE AND MEANING

Guest Editor's Preface (Fons Elders)	26
Fons Elders — Dialogue and Meaning	27
Johanna E. van Aller — A Dialogue between Nin and de Beauvoir.	41
Jos Kessels — The Socratic Dialogue as a Method of Organizational Learning	53
Tatiana Alexeevna Alexina — The Mental Present and Non-religious Concepts of Eternity: A Humanistic Approach	69
Hadewych Snijderwind — Anthropological Constants as Parameters of Human Dignity	79
Andrei Oisteanu — The Beauty and the Erotic Binding of the Beast	95
J. Hoogland & H.T. Meynen — Meaning and Reflexivity	107
Ilja Maso — Reflective Research of Meaning	123
Sami Pihlström — Science, Meaning and Philosophy of Life	135
Ariella Atzmon — Signaling the Sign: Scientism, Education, Identification	149
Adri Smaling — Argumentation, Cooperation and Charity in Qualitative Enquiry	163

EUROPEANISM AND UNIVERSALISM: ANTINOMIES AND UNITY

Albert A. Anderson — The Essence of Universalism	173
Janusz Kuczyński — Interpreting President Havel: Dialogue and Univer- salism as the Meaning of Europe and the World	185

*

The Invitation to Real Young Europe	209
Historical Reference: Global Perspectives of Europe in 1985	213

On Contributors	215
---------------------------	-----