

Environmental Philosophy

Spring 2019

Volume 16, Issue 1

SPECIAL ISSUE:

READING DERRIDA'S THE BEAST AND THE SOVEREIGN

David Baumeister, Guest Editor

CONTENTS

ARTICLES

- Introduction to Special Issue: Reading
Derrida's The Beast and the Sovereign David Baumeister 1
- Beastly Sovereignty: Three
Unequal Footnotes to Derrida Geoffrey Bennington 13
- On Sharing a World with Other Animals Kelly Oliver 35
- Who/What is Bête? From an Uncanny Word to an Interanimal Ethics Annabelle Dufourcq 57
- Hyperbole and Ellipses: Derrida and
Agamben on Sovereignty and Life Kalpana Seshadri 89
- And Say the Animal Resisted? Derrida,
Biopolitics, and the Problem with Species Rebekah Sinclair 115
- Singularisability, Plurality, and Community John Llewelyn 141
- The Human/Animal Logic of Sovereignty:
Derrida on Robinson Crusoe David Baumeister 161
- Prosthetic Figures: The Wolf,
the Marionette, the Specter Apple Iğrek 181
- Neither Beast nor Sovereign:
Wallace Stevens's Birds Cary Wolfe 201

BOOK REVIEWS

- Taking Turns with the Earth: Phenomenology, Deconstruction, and Intergenerational Justice—*
by Matthias Fritsch Sam Mickey 223
- Heidegger and Development in the Global South—*
by Siby K. George Arun Iyer 226
- Critical Theory at a Crossroads: Conversations on Resistance in Times of Crisis—*
edited by Stijn De Cauwer Jonathan Basile 230
- Coexistentialism and the Unbearable Intimacy of Ecological Emergency—*
by Sam Mickey Josh Hayes 234
- After Extinction—*
edited by Richard Grusin Brett Buchanan 238
- The Birth of Sense: Generative Passivity in Merleau-Ponty's Philosophy—*
Don Beith Laura McMahon 241