

Études maritainiennes – Maritain Studies

Vol. XXXIX, 2023

SOMMAIRE – CONTENTS

---

Maritain after 50 years

---

The Possibility of a Thomist Philosophy of History: Guidance from Jacques Maritain Jason West	3
Jacques Maritain: Natural Law and Just War Ethics Richard Feist	14
From the Philosophical to the Mystical: Maritain’s “Hunt for Essences” <sup>27</sup> Nikolaj Zunic
The Person is the Common Good: A Christian Democratic Challenge to Christian Nationalism Walter Schultz	41
Can There be Historical Truth? Elizabeth Trott	56
Maritain’s Understanding of the Good Political Life and the Failings of the Neoliberal Project David Lea	72
Artificial Intelligence and Neuroscience Research: Theologico-Philosophical Implications for the Christian Notion of the Human Person Justin Nnaemeka Onyeukaziri	85
The Ethical and Social Value of Pleasure and Advantage Friendship Rajesh Shukla	105
Against Contemporary Philosophy Louis Groarke	117

