

Table of Contents

PART 1 .....	1
Preface for all volumes .....	7
Introduction volume I .....	13
1. The Field of Relevances and the Constitutive Role of Type Structure for Sociality — Denisa Butnaru .....	31
2. Philosophy without Freedom: Constantin Noica and Alexandru Dragomir — Cristian Ciocan .....	63
3. Intersubjectivity: Between Doxa and Praxis Husserl's Phenomenology of Communicating Persons — Ion Copoeru .....	81
4. Attention et affection : la micro-genèse husserlienne de l'attention à la lumière des perspectives empiriques de Stumpf et de James, de Külpe et de Titchener — Natalie Depraz .....	103
5. Transcendental Phenomenology and the Psychological Phenomenological Reduction in Aron Gurwitsch — Jesús M. Díaz Álvarez .....	135
6. Phenomenology of Art and of the Image (Research into Painting) — Eliane Escoubas .....	167

7. Towards a Phenomenology of Biological Objects of Inquiry — Dimitri Ginev . . . . .	183
8. Fenomenología Estática de los Actos de Compra — Joan González . . . . .	201
9. Phenomenology on the Verge: Alfred Schütz's Phenomenology of Common-Sense World — Valentina Gueorguieva . . . . .	227
10. The Unavoidable: Notes on the Relation of Otherwise than Being to The Essence of Manifestation — Jad Hatem . . . . .	259
11. The Gift of Languages. Towards a Philosophy of Translation — Domenico Jervolino . . . . .	269
12. Body-Consciousness: A Phenomenological Approach — Mahmoud Khatami . . . . .	283
13. Phenomenology of Moral Action after Heidegger — Pavlos Kontos . . . . .	301
14. From Aesthetic Judgment to Aesthetic Attitude: Kant and Husserl — Danielle Lories . . . . .	321
15. Fenómenos y manifiestos: La fenomenología en el horizonte de la vanguardia — César Moreno . . . . .	343
16. Phenomena and Manifestos: Phenomenology at the Horizon of Vanguardism — César Moreno . . . . .	375