

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction to Volume 5:
The Breadth of Phenomenology
MICHAEL D. BARBER 9

I. Edmund Husserl

1. The “Remarkably Incompletely Constituted” Body
in Light of a Methodological Understanding of Constitution:
An Experiment in Phenomenological Practice (I)
ELIZABETH BEHNKE 19

2. The Justification of Norms Reflectively Analyzed
LESTER EMBREE. 71

3. What does the Question of Origins
Mean in Phenomenology?
SAULIUS GENIUSAS 81

4. From Violence to Evidence? Husserl and Sen
on Human Identity and Diversity:
Toward a Postcolonial Phenomenology of Humanity
GEORGE HEFFERNAN 95

II. Contemporaries of Husserl

5. Scheler and the Task of Human Loving
ZACHARY DAVIS. 123

6. In lumine Dei:
Scheler’s Phenomenology of World and God
EUGENE KELLY 155

7. What is the Outside?
LEONARD LAWLOR 173

8. Heidegger's Later Phenomenology:
 Allowing the Subtle Appearance to Emerge through the Din
 DOUGLAS F. PEDUTI, S.J 181

III. The First Generation

9. Freedom, Fatalism, and the Other in Being and Nothingness and The Imaginary
 BRUCE BAUGH 199
10. Anguish and Nausea as Calls to Action
 ERIC DUFFY 219
11. The Misplaced Chapter on Bad Faith or Reading Being and Nothingness in Reverse
 MATTHEW C. ESHLEMAN 241
12. On the Life That is 'Never Simply Mine':
 Anonymity and Alterity in Merleau-Ponty and Irigaray
 EMMA R. JONES 271
13. Art and the Deflagration of Being:
 Maurice Merleau-Ponty's Aesthetic
 Phenomenological Method
 MATTHEW J. GOODWIN 285
14. Between Oneself and Another: Merleau-Ponty's Organic
 Appropriation of Husserlian Phenomenology
 SHAZAD AKHTAR 307
15. The Pregnable Subject:
 Maternity and Levinas's Relevance to Feminism
 SARAH LACHANCE ADAMS 333
16. Ethics, Eidetics, and the Ethical Subject:
 A Critique of Enrique Dussel's Appropriation of the Thought of Emmanuel Levinas
 MICHAEL BARBER 355
17. The Dual Role of Testimony in Paul Ricoeur's Memory, History, Forgetting
 DAVID LEICHTER 373

IV. Other Authors and Themes

18. Recovering the Tragic: Exploring the Ethical Dimensions of Rape-Related Pregnancy
CAROLINE REBECCA LUNDQUIST 401
19. Rousseau's Phenomenological Model for the Co-Constitution of Self and World
PETER WESTMORELAND 429