

The Question of Heidegger and Technology

a critical review of the literature

by Albert Borgmann

with the assistance of Carl Mitcham

pages

I. Review of the Literature.	99-140
A. Technology between Science and Politics.	99
1. Heidegger and Natural Science	99
2. On Technology: Translation and Exposition	107
3. Heidegger Studies in the Philosophy of Technology and Environmental Ethics	111
4. Further Interpretations of Heidegger's Views on Technology	113
5. Being and Time and Technology	120
6. Heidegger, Marcuse, and Marx	123
7. Technology and Politics	127
8. Destiny and Freedom under Technology	138
B. Technology between Art and Religion.	140-162
1. The Turn from Technology to Art and Divinity	140
2. Art and Technology	141
3. Mysticism and the East	147
4. Religion and Christianity	151
5. The Overcoming of Technology	156
II. Bibliography.	162-191
A. Works by Heidegger	163
B. Works about Heidegger	167
1. Works on Science, Technology, and Politics	167
2. Works on Art and Religion	185
III. Index of Names	192

— PHILOSOPHY TODAY —

Volume XXXI

• Number 2/4 •

Summer 1987