

The Paideia Project
20th World Congress of Philosophy

Volume 24
Philosophy in Asia

Nishida Kitarō's Studies of the Good and the Debate Concerning Universal Truth in Early Twentieth-Century Japan Robert W. Adams	1
Illocution, No-Theory and Practice in Nagarjuna's Skepticism: Reflections on the Vigrahavyavartani Douglas L. Berger	7
Professor Matilal's Nāvya-Naive Realism vis-a-vis Dummett-Putnam-Mimamsa Anti-Realisms: Some Metaphysical Worries Purushottama Bilimoria	14
Debts of Good Will and Interpersonal Justice Leonardo D. de Castro	21
Enlightenment and its Attainment: Samkhya-Yoga and Buddhist Perspectives Deepti Dutta	27
Resonanz als Grundmotiv ostasiatischer Ethik Rolf Elberfeld	33
Tatparya and its role in verbal understanding Raghunath Ghosh	41
Philosophy in the South Asian Subcontinent: A Unity in Maladjustment Galib A. Khan	49
Philosophical Foundation of Ecological Ethics V.V. Mantatov and O.V. Dorzhigushaeva	55
Impermanence and Death in Sino-Japanese Philosophical Context Maja Milcinski	58
Zen Buddhist Perspectives on Modern Education Masato Mitsuda	64
Averting Arguments: Nagarjuna's Verse 29 S. K. Wertz	70

Li and Change

Wong Yew Leong74