

The Works of Francis William Newman
on Religion

A Critical Edition
Vol. V

Contents

A State Church not Defensible on the Theory Espoused by Liberal Episcopalians . . . . .	1
Of the Illiberality of Sentiment and Practice Apprehended from a Separating of Church and State . . . . .	25
Catholic Union . . . . .	39
Moral Influence of Law . . . . .	121
Dr. Lushington's Judgment and Feasible Church Reform . . . . .	133
From Luther to Colenso . . . . .	149
On the National Church . . . . .	169
Thoughts on a Free and Comprehensive Christianity . . . . .	187
On the Regeneration of Sunday . . . . .	195
On Religious Endowments . . . . .	211
Organized Priesthood . . . . .	227
Reconstruction of the Christian Creed . . . . .	243
What Is Disestablishment and Disendowment? . . . . .	249
The New Crusades of the Church for the World . . . . .	257

Contents

Bibliography . . . . .	271
Index . . . . .	273