

Contents

Introduction: Cosmopolitanism without Foundations or Cosmopolitanism with a Plurality of Grounds? Tamara Caraus & Dan D. Lazea . . . . .	7
List of Contributors . . . . .	23

Part I

Kantian Grounds

1. The Roman Model versus the Universalist Cosmopolitanism's Respect of Sovereignty Thomas Berns . . . . .	31
2. Kant's World-State-Ideal and its Provisional Surrogates Aron Telegdi-Csetri . . . . .	43
3. Kantian and Wellsian Cosmopolitanism: A Critical Distinction Stefan Pedersen . . . . .	66

Part II

Contesting Grounds

4. The Boundary Problem in Democratic Theory: Cosmopolitan Implications Camil Alexandru Parvu . . . . .	93
---	----

5. Dissent as Foundation of Cosmopolitanism
Tamara Caraus . . . . . 115
6. The “Creole Cosmopolitisation” and the All-World
Angelica Montes Montoya . . . . . 142

Part III

Human Rights as the Ground for Cosmopolitanism?

7. Human Rights International Law and Cosmopolitanism
Kostas Koukouzelis . . . . . 169
8. The “Subject of Law” as the Foundation of Cosmopolitanism
Benjamin Bourcier . . . . . 194
9. *When Human Rights Ruin Cosmopolitan Sensibilities:
Assessing the Inter-American View on Amnesties*
Fabia Veçoso . . . . . 218
10. The Altruistic (Universalist) Veil: Legitimizing Militarism through a Cosmopolitan Approach
Sergiu Miscoiu & Claudiu Alexandru Bolcu . . . . . 233
11. Two Visions of Community: Cosmopolitan Human Rights versus Collective Security
Elena Paris . . . . . 255